

Media Advisory
September 13, 2010
U.S. Embassy, Georgetown

U.S. Embassy Hosts Public Forum on Intimate Partner Violence

The U.S. Embassy in Georgetown will host a public forum on “Intimate Partner Violence” on Friday, September 17, 2010 in the Rupununi Room, Hotel Tower, from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. The Forum will feature a presentation by distinguished legal expert Ms. Beth Feder, Esq., followed by a question and answer session. The forum is open to the public and the media is invited to cover the event.

This public forum is one of several activities organized by the U.S. Embassy to share ideas and strategies on countering domestic violence and promoting women’s rights.

Should you require additional information, kindly contact the U.S. Embassy Public Affairs Office at PDGeorge@state.gov or at telephone numbers 225 4900-9 Ext. 4018.

Beth M. Feder is a Pre-Suit Case Manager, attached to Lawlor Winston Trial Lawyers, Florida, USA. She is the Founder of New York Law School’s first Domestic Violence Legal Project which partnered students with local agencies to assist in the representation of victims of domestic violence throughout New York City. She has represented victims of gender-based violence in all aspects of litigation and has lectured extensively on the issues of domestic violence and matrimonial litigation. She is currently lecturing on behalf of the U.S. State Department as a consultant in the area of gender-based violence.

###